FUEL SITUATION REACHES CRISIS

SENATE LINES UP FOR COUNT ON TREATY

COAL MINERS AND OPERATORS CONFER UNDER U. S. ORDER

Fuel to be Denied All Non Essential Industry of the U. S.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS DISPATCH) WASHINGTON, Nov. 19.—Scale committees of bituminous miners and operators in the central competitive field went into executive session today to negotiate a wage contract, after Federal Administrator Garfield had urged upon them the necessity for adjusting their differences and producing the coal the country needs.

Speaking with the authority of President Wilson's cabinet, Fuel Administrator Garfield told representatives of the bituminous coal operators and miners here today that "the people of the United States need, must have and will have coal" and as long as the government stands they will not be prevented from getting it by "anything the operators or miners may do."

Dr. Garfield explained that his purpose was to furnish the conference with the data which he would use in determining what wage advances, if any, agreed to by the operators and miners could be borne properly by the public.

CHICAGO, Nov. 19.—The growing menace of the coal situation was the subject today of further discussion by Walker D. Hines, federal director general of railroads and seven regional directors. Possible action talked about included a further reduction in passenger train service and shutting off coal from non-essential industries. Mr. Hines indicated he would issue a statement after the meeting regarding steps to be taken to conserve the coal supply now available.

"What we will consider is what means can be employed, by elimination of consumption except where it is indispensable, to conserve our coal reserve," said Mr. Hines.

Meanwhile reports from virtually all sources were of a vanishing supply of bituminous coal as the approximately 400,000 miners remained firm in their disposition to await announcement of an agreement by the apparently deadlocked miners-operators conference at Washington.

Of the great union fields only West Virginia reported an appreciable amount of fuel brought out, it being said 75 per cent of the mines in that state was being operated.

An immediate prospect of a declaration of military control in the mining districts of Iowa, with state operation of mines; a strike of returned miners in Wyoming, said to have been due mainly to activities of radicals, and withdrawal of federal troops from West Virginia marked main developments in the mining districts during the last 24 hours.

The regional directors generally informed Mr. Hines that the railroads had sufficient fuel for several days, the statement of the Central West Director being an exception.

No general freight embargo will be considered, Mr. Hines said, adding that restricting the fuel supply of non-essential industries in itself would sharply curtail freight shipments.

Mexicans Order U. S. Consul To Be Imprisoned

MEXICO CITY, Nov. 19.—A formal order for the imprisonment of William O. Jenkins, U. S. consular agent at Puebla, on charges of having made false declarations and threats against persons in case they testified they saw him at his headquarters in company with Federico Cordova, the bandit chieftain, was issued today by Criminal Judge Gonzales Franco, at Puebla, according to advices received from that city. Jenkins, however, is not yet in jail and in a statement to the press asserts it is untrue that he is not allowed to leave the city.

AUTO BANDIT ROBS HOTEL OF $90; ESCAPES

ELYRIA, O., Nov. 19.—A lone bandit shortly before daybreak today cowed guests and employees in the dining room of Hotel Toplift and after rifling the cash register of $90 escaped.

The bandit entered the dining room, ordered and disposed of a breakfast and called for his check. As the waiter approached, the diner drew a revolver, commanded the waiter to throw up his hands and then backed the guests and employees into a corner, holding them there while he took $90 from the cash register and then escaped in an automobile.

NOTED HORSEMAN DIES

TOLEDO, O., Nov. 19.—Eddie Mitchell, noted throughout the world as a driver and horse trainer, died last night while motoring from Toledo to his farm near the Ohio-Michigan boundary line.

Mitchell raced in England and Ireland any on the continent, and in 1905 was awarded the championship of Europe with Alta Axworthy, a three-year-old trotter. The following year he won thousands on English tracks. For 13 years he raced Crescents, international champion trotter, later sold to the Russian government.

PRESIDENT ADVISES DEMOCRATS TO MAKE FIRM STAND AGAINST TREATY WITH LODGE RESERVATIONS

(ASSOCIATED PRESS DISPATCH) WASHINGTON, Nov. 19.—A letter from President Wilson advising administration senators to vote against ratification of the treaty with the foreign relations committee reservations was laid before a conference of the administration senate forces today by Democratic Leader Hitchcock.

The committee program, the president wrote, would provide not for ratification "but rather for the nullification of the treaty."

RAID QUARTERS AND THEN BURN RED LITERATURE

(ASSOCIATED PRESS DISPATCH) CINCINNATI, O., Nov. 19.—Mayor John Galvin today severely censured the conduct of the members of the Robert Bentley post of the American Legion, who raided the headquarters of the socialist party here last night and burned a quantity of supposed radical literature.

The mayor designated the raid as mob rule and asserted that it showed a lack of patriotism and good citizenship. He also said that he would investigate the failure of the police to intervene while the raid was in progress.

CINCINNATI, O., Nov. 19.—Members of the American Legion, numbering more than 300, led by their officers, descended upon socialist headquarters in this city late last night and three hundreds of pounds of radical literature thrown into the streets. A bonfire was started and the literature burned. No one was in the building when the raid was made.

Carrying out their plans with secrecy, following a meeting at the club rooms of the soldiers' organization earlier in the evening, word was passed that all members should assemble in the vicinity of the socialist headquarters at 1:30 o'clock.

At the appointed time men came from surrounding doors and hallways and proceeded to invade the building.

Most of the literature burned had been printed for the Communist Labor party of America. Other pamphlets were issued by the Socialist Publication society, Brooklyn, and by Liberator's headquarters, Cleveland. One was a reported reproduction of a letter to the "American workmen from the Socialist soviet republic of Russia," written by Nikolai Lenin.

Another pamphlet was headed "An open letter to President Wilson" and was written by Joseph W. Sharts, Dayton, Ohio, counsel for Eugene V. Debs in his trial Cleveland.

A large American flag found in the assembly hall was taken by the invading former service men.

Police officials said they had taken no names nor had they recognized any of the raiders.

NEW YORK, Nov. 19.—More than 35 tons of Christmas gifts are being loaded on steamer Omak, Christmas ship for the Y. M. C. A. for American troops in Siberia.

Federal Judges Who Disagree Regarding Constitutionality of War-Time Dry Laws.

Judge Arthur L. Brown

Judge Learned Hand

Here are two federal judges who disagree as to the constitutionality of the war-time prohibition acts. Judge Arthur L. Brown issued an injunction in Providence, R. I., on the application of a brewing company, restraining federal officials in that city from enforcing the Volstead act. Judge Learned Hand, sitting in New York City, in a sweeping decision dismissed motions for temporary injunctions restraining the government from enforcing the dry law.

NEW FRANCHISE ASKED FOR CAR LINE IN TOLEDO

(ASSOCIATED PRESS DISPATCH) TOLEDO, O., Nov. 19.—The Toledo Railways and Light Company, driven from the streets two weeks ago by an ouster ordinance approved by the voters, renewed its efforts today to secure signatures to a petition for submitting to the voters a 25-year franchise which provides for resumption of car service on a cost plus plan.

Details of the ordinance were announced as providing for straight 5 cent fare with one cent extra for a transfer. The rate of fare when the cars were withdrawn on November 8 by Henry L. Doherty, was six cents and two cents for a transfer.

Frank R. Coates, president of the company, said today that with the granting of a franchise the company can borrow money much more cheaply than it could with no rights in the streets. He declared also that with re-routing and eliminating of useless lines cost of operation might be reduced.

Professor Henry E. Riggs, of Ann Arbor and Frederick W. Ballard, of Cleveland, appointed valuers of the company's property by Mayor Cornell Schreiber, have reported no progress. They will be paid out of the fund of $25,000 that Mr. Doherty volunteered to advance for preliminary expenses.

It is believed that it will require a month at least to arrive at a valuation that will be agreeable alike to the city and company. The valuers must make a detailed and technical inspection of the tracks, overhead equipment, pavement between the tracks and the cars parked along the shores of Lake Erie in Michigan, it is said.

When this is done it is planned to submit two ordinances to the voters, one for municipal ownership and the other for the Taylor plan now operating in Cleveland.

DEPUTIES FIRE ON STRIKERS AT OHIO STEEL MILL

YOUNGSTOWN, O., Nov. 19.—Deputy sheriffs opened fire on steel strikers early today during attacks upon negro workmen leaving an East Youngstown plant, and one striker was shot in the leg. One negro is in the hospital from injuries received and another was less seriously hurt. The house of a workman in East Youngstown was destroyed last night by fire of mysterious origin.

The Bessemer plant of the Republic Iron and Steel Company, the last idle bessemer in the city resumed operation today, the company announced.

GET A LOT OF THEM LONDON, Nov. 19.—The Bolsheviks claim the capture of 10 generals and more than 100 other officers at Omsk, according to an official statement issued today by the soviet government at Moscow. Koleshak's army is being pursued in an easterly direction, the statement adds.

GOVERNOR COX LOOKS TOWARD PRIVATE LIFE

Statement Made When Speaker Alludes to Him For Presidency.

COLUMBUS, Nov. 19.—"When a man has served three times as governor of the greatest state and has been successfully passed through a flood, a change in the constitution and a war, it is but natural that he looks enviously forward to the tranquil pursuits of a private citizen."

Governor Cox thus answered a remark made at a banquet table last night in which his name was linked with the presidency. C. E. Shepard, Toledo, in introducing the governor to delegates of the Ohio Association of Industries at the Hotel Tushnet after paying tribute to his record, alluded to him as the next president, if fortune smiles.

The governor, dealing at length with the Americanization problems, declared half measures to meet the menace of Bolshevism.

"The time now has come when, if foreigners do not prove themselves 100 per cent Americans, we must load the ships and send them back to the land from which they came," he said.

Confident predictions that present unrest would soon disappear, because Americanism would be arrayed against it, were made by the executive. "We have had good cause to believe that, by reason of a happening within the last fortnight," he added. "When it seemed that contradictions between labor and capital had reached a dangerous stage, a single federal judge signed a paper, then everything changed."

"Behind the order of that judge were 100,000,000 Americans."

Broker's Arrest May Clear Up Stock Robberies

NEW YORK, Nov. 19.—More arrests were expected today in the roundup in New York, Washington and other cities of persons suspected of having been implicated in the theft of $500,000 to $1,000,000 worth of securities in New York's financial district within the last six months.

With the arrest of David W. Sullivan, a member of the Consolidated Stock Exchange, charged with larceny and criminally receiving two Crucible Steel certificates valued at $15,000 the police expressed confidence they had hit upon a trial which disappearing messenger boys had mystified Wall Street and in which disappearing messenger boys had played a prominent part.

The decision to have Dr. Garfield intervene in the negotiations between operators and miners was taken at the cabinet meeting this morning after reports of the seriousness of the fuel situation had been submitted by Dr. Garfield, himself. He was thoroughly familiar with the mission of Railroad Director Hines to Chicago and the conditions there. Dr. Garfield told the cabinet that while the operators and miners were continuing to spar for advantages in the negotiations with no result, the necessity of a nation-wide embargo on freight, 40 or 50 per cent curtailment of passenger train service, and closing down of essential industries of millions of men, would soon confront the country.

The cabinet was unanimous in the opinion that the field administrator should exercise authority in the premises and Dr. Garfield immediately sought the operators and miners.

PACT FIGHT REACHES ITS FINAL STAGE

(ASSOCIATED PRESS DISPATCH) WASHINGTON, Nov. 19.—The decision of democratic friends of the treaty to vote against a ratification resolution containing the Lodge reservations was affirmed at the conference of democrats. Senator Hitchcock said enough democrats to insure its defeat had agreed to vote against the Lodge resolution.

No compromise plan was drafted by the democrats but it was suggested that after the prospective defeat of the Lodge reservation, a committee of democrats would be appointed to confer with the republicans to that end.

Immediately the senate met, Senator Lodge formally presented the resolution of ratification containing the 17 reservations adopted by a majority of the senate.

At the outset Senator Lodge asked unanimous consent for an immediate vote on unqualified ratification. Administration Leader Hitchcock said the democrats preferred to wait until the Lodge resolution had been voted on. Senator Lodge then withdrew his request and debate on the Lodge reservation began.

Senator Hitchcock said the democrats were of the belief that the voice of unqualified ratification should be taken after, and not before, the Lodge resolution was disposed.

A number of senators are committed to the Lodge reservations, he said, "and it would not be kindly to propose now, when senators are bound by pledges, a resolution of unreserved ratification."

Senator Hitchcock added that after a vote on the Lodge resolution he would be glad to get unanimous consent to offer a resolution of unqualified ratification.

Senator Lodge said if the democrats did not desire to vote at once on unqualified ratification he would withdraw his request.

Lone Bandit is Particular As To Whom He Robs

CHEYENNE, Wyo., Nov. 19.—Seven armed posses and a troop of cavalry from Fort D. A. Russell today searched the hills and brushland in a wide area around Medicine Box for William Carlisle, notorious bandit, who last night outwitted his pursuers, robbed passengers on a Union Pacific train of $250 and escaped in the darkness, wounded by a shower of bullets.

Carlisle boarded the train at Rock River, entered a tourist sleeper by smashing a vestibule window, fired one shot through the roof of the car to terrify passengers and forced all but "old men, women, children, soldiers and sailors" to contribute. "I do not rob these," he told the passengers.

As Carlisle stood in the vestibule, waiting for the train to stop, a passenger fired at close range and the bandit is believed to have been hit.

Passengers were positive from description that the bandit was Carlisle, who escaped from the state prison at Rawlins, last Saturday, and railroad officials from other evidence were equally sure that the train bandit who terrorized travelers through this state in 1916 is responsible for last night's robbery.

PRINCE HAS GOOD TIME

NEW YORK, Nov. 19.—The enthusiasm with which New York has welcomed the Prince of Wales showed no signs of abatement today. The crowds that jammed the downtown streets when the royal visitor started on his sight-seeing trip through the financial district were even denser, if possible, than those which greeted him on his arrival yesterday. The day's entertainment included visits to places of interest in the city.

COMMUNISTS AND SYMPATHIZERS PRIVILEGED CLASS

Only These Enjoy Right of Election to Council of National Economy.

ASSIGNED BEST HOMES

Population of Bolshevik Russia Is Divided Into Four Categories.

OMSK.—Communists and their sympathizers constitute the privileged class of Bolshevik Russia, says M. F. Toonin, formerly a small land owner, in the Samara district. Mr. Toonin has lived there under Bolshevik rule since December, 1913, but lately arrived at Omsk. He gives an illuminating description of life under the Bolshevik regime.

The civil government of the Samara section is in the hands of an executive committee, he said. This committee controls supplies, lodgings, fuel and military affairs. The control of production and manufacturing industries is subject to a council of national economy, which is subordinate to the executive committee.

Divided Into Four

The population is divided into four categories. The first of these is comprised of Communists and their sympathizers.

The second category is composed of employees of soviet institutions, the third of ordinary citizens and the fourth category of officers, their families and the bourgeoisie, the formerly middle class.

Only Communists and their sympathizers enjoy the right of election to the Council of National Economy. To them are assigned the best homes and lodgings. Their property is not subject to requisition. Under the rationing system they are allowed one pound of meat a day, while none of the others receive more than one pound a week. Their full requirements of fuel is allotted to them while that of the other classes is cut one-half or less.

The Communists are allowed 30 pounds of baked bread or flour a month, while the allotment to the other classes ranges down from 25 pounds to nothing. Textiles and footwear are permitted to Communists and soviet employees only.

Have Little Rights

People of the fourth category, officers, their families and the bourgeoisie, have little or no rights. No food or fuel is rationed to them. Ordinary citizens, composing the third category, receive one-half more than the rations allotted to the Communists.

All houses have been appraised and these valued at more than 10,000 rubles are nationalized. Lodgings are distributed to the inhabitants and no distinction is made between home owners and lodgers. All pay above the established rate for lodgings.

The houses of the commissioners and their friends are virtually exempt from appraisal. The belongings of all people, even their clothing and effects, are listed. Each person is allowed to have a chair, some plates, a spoon, fork, etc., and two changes of linen. The rest is taken away and put in warehouses. There are no articles of household utility nor clothing on the market and none is produced. The soviet controls the distribution of necessities from the warehouses.

WOUNDED TWICE WHILE IN "BATTALION OF DEATH"

Mrs. Agnes Menefee

Few women had more thrilling war experiences than Mrs. Agnes Menefee, a pretty young Russian woman who arrived recently in this country to join her husband, an American artillery officer, at her home in Covington, Ky. Her maiden name was Agnes Kostovska. While serving with the famous "Battalion of Death" she was wounded twice in action and was decorated by the czar. She was a prisoner in Germany for six months, but escaped. She met the officer who became her husband while she was doing war duty abroad.

Governor Cox Demands U. S. Probe of Sugar

COLUMBUS, O., Nov. 19.—Governor Cox today telegraphed Attorney General Palmer asking for a federal investigation of sugar prices in Ohio.

This telegram was sent after Gov. Cox was advised that beet sugar was selling at 20 cents a pound in certain parts of the state.

"Let me bring to your attention that sugar is selling in Ohio at 20 cents the pound and respectfully suggest that the matter is worthy of investigation." It was stated at the governor's office that the state has no control over prices and that the matter can best be handled through federal authorities.

Sad Songs at The Removal of Liquor Stock

BECKLEY, O., Nov. 19.—A crowd that sang "Good Bye Forever," "Farewell Boogie," "How Do I Feel" and other lamentations saw internal revenue agents early today move away $200,000 worth of whiskey confiscated here.

Thirteen revenue agents loaded the liquor on motor trucks after making a raid on a cellar adjoining property controlled by Perry Everett and Harry A. Lockhart, who are declared to be the owners of the whiskey and to have attempted to evade payment of the government floor tax. Sixteen hundred cases in addition to a large quantity of bulk whiskey was seized. The seized liquor weighed eight and one-half tons.

DURBIN ADMITS HE TOOK GIRL RIDING

However, Says He Never Proposed To Miss Washburn.

Testifying as the character of Bernice Washburn, the plaintiff in the $10,000 breach of promise suit against C. Mitchell Durbin, of Harrod, Archie Fobbe, employee of the Moon garage, stated an instance where the girl had returned from Cleveland where she had been having what she termed a "real party," a regular affair where they played poker with the sky the limit. This, the girl denied, when recalled to the witness stand, stating she had never held conversation with Fobbe except in the presence of Durbin.

Florence Kline, elevator girl employed at the Lima House at the same time the Washburn girl worked there testified that while Miss Washburn had declared her love for Durbin, this was nothing unusual in her case as "she was always in love with all the fellows she knew." Her testimony substantiated the testimony of other witnesses to the effect that numerous nocturnal automobile rides were enjoyed in Durbin's car.

Other witnesses placed on the stand by the defense were Warren Ruffin and Jack Graves, colored porters at the Lima House, Josephine Frey, 210 South Pierce street, and Mrs. Durbin, wife of the defendant. Mrs. Durbin testified their residence had been called several times from Lima by some woman who refused to talk to her but stated she wished to talk to Mr. Durbin.

Durbin when on stand Tuesday afternoon admitted he had taken the girl on numerous joy rides, and even that he had stopped his car along the road and his arm would stray about her neck, but absolutely denied the charge that he had ever kissed her or made any promises of marriage.

First Half Day of Drive Successful

A total of $2,654 was reported at the close of the first half days work in the three days intensive campaign being waged by the Y. W. C. A., to obtain a budget of $20,000. Seven out of the ten teams soliciting, made a report, the largest for today coming from Mrs. T. Trout who reported $511. One $500 donation from the Girls' Social Club was the only large individual donation made public.

Several teams are still incomplete and the captains could not make a report today, but will report at Thursday noon day luncheon, which will be held at 12 o'clock tomorrow at Trinity church, instead of at 12:30 o'clock, the time of today's meeting.

Allies Refrain From Expression As To U. S. Action

LONDON, Nov. 19.—Great Britain and France are considering whether they are not compelled to carry out the German peace treaty and operate the League of Nations independently of the United States, pending the decision of the American government on its course.

It is pointed out that matters are continually arising under the treaty which need immediate attention, such as plebiscite commissions and it is considered because of this it is no longer possible to make the pact operative.

The opinion strongly prevails here that Great Britain will not accept any reservation made by the United States which would necessitate the recognition of a new treaty as the British government. It is declared, however, that the British government has every intention of abiding by the conditions of the Paris conference.

The point still exists in this capital that the American government will ultimately take its place with the allies. Meanwhile there appears to be a possibility that Great Britain and the others will proceed without the United States.

No One Blamed For 20 Deaths

STUEBENVILLE, O., Nov. 19.—No criminal negligence was found, was the only statement made today by Coroner T. H. Kirk, following the holding of an inquest into the mine disaster at Amsterdam, Ohio in which the lives of 20 miners were lost. Thirty-five witnesses, mostly miners who were in the mine when the fire broke out, testified. The testimony showed that the fire started in the fan room.

INCREASE COAL PRODUCTION
CHARLESTON, W. Va., Nov. 19.—Coal production in the Kanawha field yesterday showed an increase of 1,600 tons over the best previous day since the strike in the mines was called and operators expected an even better record for today. The mines are operating far below normal, however, as yesterday's tonnage totalled 2,430 tons against a normal tonnage of 4,000.

Canada's representatives include G. H. Wood, chairman; and Charles W. Bishop, general secretary of the National Council of Canada, both of

Martens Says He Plotted in Berlin Against the Czar

NEW YORK, Nov. 19.—Ludwig C. A. K. Martens, "ambassador" of the Russian soviet republic, plotted in Germany and Switzerland with Nikolai Lenin and Leon Trotsky for the overthrow of the imperial government, he testified here. He was deported from Russia after serving three years imprisonment for his revolutionary activities.

"The Russian revolution was my life," Martens declared in telling the joint legislative committee investigating radical activities in this state the story of his relations with the Russian Bolsheviks.

He appeared before the committee having refused Saturday to submit to examination or to supply correspondence with his government.

At the time of his arrest in Russia he was a student at the Technological Institute in St. Petersburg, where he studied engineering. It was early in the '90s, he said, that he became associated with Russian student bodies. Lenin was a member of the same student body and both were imprisoned for their activities in behalf of Russian workers.

Lenine was exiled to Siberia and Martens himself deported to Germany after serving three years in jail. He testified he was one of the leaders of the revolution in Russia in 1905 and 1906 and directed propaganda from Berlin for the overthrow of the czar's government.

The Newsprint Shortage

A GREAT many people do not realize that the shortage of newsprint is not confined to Lima and to Ohio, but is nation-wide and world-wide as well. The foremost newspaper publishers in the country met in New York last week and decided that every newspaper, to live, must not only increase subscription and advertising rates, but must cut down the number of pages in each issue.

The Chicago Tribune, which styles itself the world's greatest newspaper and doesn't exaggerate much at that, recently printed an editorial which should be read by every person who subscribes for a newspaper. We commend it for your perusal:

"The newsprint paper supply is rapidly approaching a stage which will be fatal to many newspapers. The present normal demand is perhaps 25 per cent greater than the supply, and prices are on a famine basis and going higher. At present rates of advertising it is impossible for most newspapers to make money.

"If this situation were the result of manipulation, or monopoly, it might be dealt with by the usual legal measures, though prosecution and legislation are disappointing in results. In fact, the present situation is the result of shortsighted attempts in the past to restrict the price of paper, which has kept capital out of manufacture, so that the industry now is not able to meet the publishers' needs.

"The crisis can be met only by voluntary self-denial—unless it be allowed to develop until the weaker publishers go under. The Tribune is in a fortunate situation because it manufactures its own paper. But it believes it would be a national misfortune if newspaper or other publications of merit were victimized by this abnormal condition, perhaps even to the extent of being forced out of existence.

"The Tribune believes, therefore, that the stronger publications should forego their advantage to a reasonable extent and enter into an agreement to curtail the consumption of newsprint paper. The agreement must be general and advertisers should give public spirited help by assenting to restrictions of space.

"The Tribune would be glad to lead the movement for restriction, but has gone as far as it feels it is reasonable that it should go until a general agreement is put in force. It stands ready, however, to join in a general movement to bring consumption down to the level of supply and thus save a situation which must soon prove disastrous to many publications and a public misfortune."

Some Job.

THE AMERICAN LEGION by overwhelming vote declares against admitting office-holders or politicians to positions of trust in the order and the use of the legion to promote any political measures or fortunes. The ideal is absolutely right and we hope the legion will be able to realize it. But politicians are slippery, persistent and perennially alert. If the legion is to frustrate their advances and intrigueries it will have to build its fences hog tight and mule high and keep a corps of night watchmen busy as a bee in clover time. There never was yet devised an organization so laudable nor an institution so exalted but politicians "horned in" for the promotion of their own petty purposes.

Doubtless

ATTORNEY GENERAL PALMER states that there are scores of publications in the United States—banned from the mails but circulated by other means—advocating the forcible overthrow of the government of the United States. Every one of these publications doubtless feels a warm sympathy for the editors in this country who are opposing any strengthening of the sedition laws and demanding the instant repeal of the espionage act.

GOOD MEETING—"Just as soon as a child learns it can get something by crying for it, it's all off—and the same applies with a woman."

The old-fashioned man used to get up Sunday morning and polish all the shoes in the house out of the same kit, but now he has to have nine different colors, and he gets roasted over every pair for his colorblindness.

Exercise is good for everybody, of course, and perhaps 26 of the 27 candidates for the Presidency, and maybe all the 27, who knows, will at least not the exercise there is in the running.

It's a fine thing the Footkiller is like the Weather Man, not subject to the back and forth of just anybody—if he were by night there wouldn't be anybody left on earth, maybe, but you and me!

Being born equal is not what the folks of this country are panting for now; they want to be born with a bigger automobile than their neighbors have.

The difference between Ohio and the Sahara is that the Sahara has camels and a few shady places with cool, wet places here and there.

Short Stories of the Buckeye State

AN INTERESTING EXPERIMENT

On Oct. 1, 1875, the first experiment was made to test the question whether a person's current passed through a human body from which it had been removed, would set up a current in the body again, perhaps the first experiment of record ever made. It was performed in Columbus, under the direction of Dr. T. C. Monahan, a member of science to the Columbus high school, now professor emeritus of physics in the State university and a trustee of the institution.

Current electricity as we have it today was then unknown, and the energy developed in a multiple coil battery, strengthened by the induction coil was the strongest to be obtained. Professor Monahan had such an apparatus. A man had been condemned to death in the Franklin county courts, and the experimenters contrived to secure the body of this felon immediately after the execution for their purpose. The condemned man had formally given his body to a prominent Columbus physician and he readily passed his rights in it over to Professor Monahan for the purpose of the experiment.

So fifteen minutes after the physician employed for the purpose by the sheriff, and who did not know of the proposed experiment, had pronounced the man dead, his body was on a table in Starling Medical college. There in the presence of a number of scientific men the electrodes were applied to the limbs, resulting in wild and vigorous writhing of the arms and legs. This reaction fell off after some minutes, but there was no other effect. Life was not restored to the executed man.

Among others present were the members of the supreme court—instituted in probably with view to an interesting legal question that might have been presented had the man who had been condemned to death and was executed been restored to life. But that question was never presented.

The man who was executed was John Barclay. He killed a butcher named Garmel on a country road out in the direction of Westerville for the purpose of robbery. Joseph H. Orthwein was the prosecuting attorney and Joseph Otis, the trial judge.

OUR BED-TIME STORY

FOR TINY TIMES-DEMOCRAT FOLKS

Now, I know you thought that, when the kidnapper gave the letter to the young man near the hotel, the young man kept right on to the hotel and did as he was asked, pocketing the five dollars.

Well, that wasn't what happened at all. The young man continued on his way to the hotel until he was sure that the kidnapper was paying no more attention to him. Then he turned around quickly and began following the kidnapper, slipping in doorways and behind trees whenever he thought the kidnapper might be slinking back.

The kidnapper, of course, walked along at a rapid gait straight toward the house where the other kidnappers were and where the children were being held. The young man followed him closely. It was a long walk—through the rest of the city, down to the shore of the bay and then along the street to the house. But the young man kept track of the kidnapper all the way.

When the kidnapper turned into the house the young man watched the place for a while in the hope of learning something about the place, but the drawn blinds and the fence around the house prevented him from getting a glimpse of anything going on inside the place. So after waiting for a few minutes and making sure that he could find the place again, the young man started back toward the hotel.

As he reached the center of the city he stopped under a street light long enough to open the letter—it had become unsealed—and read the two notes. Then he laughed richly out loud, shoved the letter in his pocket and went on his way.

But we'll leave him for a while and see what was happening in the little old woman's house, where the kidnappers had been waiting for the return of the man who had been told to get the letter to Captain Bevan.

When he entered the house and told the other members of the band how easy it had been done he expected that they would all be very cheerful and confident of getting the money. But he found instead, that they were too much excited about another happening to pay much attention to him.

Jack and Jane had been seen in the little old woman's yard. It wasn't because Jack or Jane had disobeyed the little old woman, either.

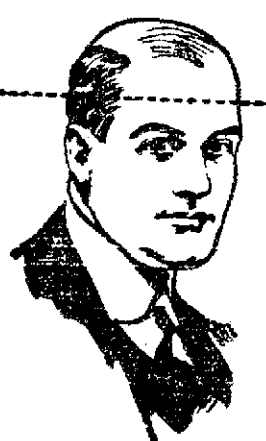

This is how it happened. A ragman had come into the neighborhood and was prowling around people's back yards looking for old rags and other things he could buy. The high fence back of the kidnappers' house aroused his curiosity. Thinking that there might be a big pile of papers or iron or something in the yard inside the fence he piled some boxes on top of each other in one of the yards, climbed onto them and looked over. Then he saw the children playing on the ground.

Jack and Jane didn't see him at all, but the little old woman, who had been watching the children from her chair inside one of the windows, saw him. She rushed to the door and screamed at him to get down, which he did in a hurry, for she looked at him so terribly I'm sure he had a right to be scared. He grabbed up his bag and hustled out of the neighborhood as quick as he could.

Of course, the little old woman couldn't tell whether he had heard about the kidnapping or whether he thought anything about seeing two foreign-looking little tots playing in that neighborhood, but she knew that the only thing to do was to tell the band of kidnappers about it. So this is what they were discussing when the messenger came back from taking the notes to the hotel.

Get a small bottle of "Danderine" at any drug store for a few cents, pour a little into your hand and rub well into the scalp with the finger tips. By morning most, if not all, of this awful scurf will have disappeared. Two or three applications often remove every bit of dandruff and stops falling hair. Every hair on scalp shortly shows more life, vigor, brightness, thickness and color.

is in the hands of men who know the business, and who are prepared to advise you as to quality and wearing possibilities of the various grades of floor coverings. It is not always best to consider price only. It does not mean much to say you have a 9x12 Axminster Rug for $29.88—it may be only worth that much and one of the same size costing $40.00 may be a great deal better investment.

We do not consider price only. We have the cheaper grades if you want them. We are showing a very handsome line of rugs and you will find the prices are right, and it costs you nothing to see them.

Adventures of a Married Flirt

AN IMPULSIVE SUITOR

I trailed into our sitting room late next morning in search of breakfast. In spite of my agitation of the evening before, and the horrible denouncement which I faced from Captain Frazier, I had slept remarkably well and woke with the keen desire for coffee and rolls which only slumber lulled by the best of the surf can in still.

If I were the heroine in a book, I should have tossed for hours on a downy couch and call weakly for tea at an early hour. I told myself dependently, "How different real life is. I simply can't be heroic."

To my surprise, Fan was gone. Mrs. Meredith breakfasted early and left word that she has gone for a walk. The maid told me as she arranged my fruit and rolls on a folding table by the window overlooking the sea.

"What energy!" I murmured. "Bring me the letters, please." I found a number of bills from the shops in the street she handed me; there was also a note from Alice urging Fan and me to pay her a visit before we returned to town for the winter. At the very bottom of the heap was an unstamped envelope bearing the letter head of a shors hotel and addressed to me in a strange handwriting, expressive of strength and individuality.

"Major Williston," I told myself instantly, and I was right.

"I am sending this over to you this morning after a long session with myself," it ran without salutation, "I went for a walk on the beach just after sunrise when one's head is clearer and one is less likely to be guided by unreasoning instinct. I remember hearing one of the finest statesmen England has make the statement that nothing of moment should be decided at night, for the instinct is lowest then and not to be trusted. But, as I should have acted in the identical manner last night and my resolution stands the test of clear reasoning, I will come to the point of this long preamble.

"I want you to trust me and let me help you."

"No doubt you will say that your affairs are none of mine and thank me politely to keep out of them. But I could not help but see that something was very wrong last night and that your American captain was evidently at the bottom of it. Has he offended you in any way? Has he brought you embarrassment by his attention which are very obvious?"

WILL IT DO ANY GOOD IF I THRASH HIM?

Can't you confide in me? I look on unreasoning dislike to the chap which cannot be all attributed to jealousy."

I dropped the letter in my lap and burned my face in my hands with laughter that was partly tears.

"What a dear impulsive, proposition boy!" I gasped aloud. "Only fancy a Britisher acting with such rashness, and I adore him for it."

"Adore who for what?" Fan, coming in suddenly demanded.

"Major Williston," I gurgled. "Read that," without thinking, I thrust the letter into her hands. She read it with a frown.

"Well, are you going to?" she asked.

"Going to what?"

She shrugged with an air of hopeless despair.

"Obviously you didn't finish it. I dare say that last paragraph was not meant for my eyes."

I snatched it from her and turned the sheet.

"You have roused in me the strangest tenderness and desire to protect you. I know that you are not happy and I want so much to make you so. Will you consider my proposal that you termed preposterous last night? Divorce your husband for whom I have been told you do not care, and marry me. Give me that promise to take away over- seas with me, to carry as a talisman when I go over the top."

I faced Fan's sternly accusing frown with a bit of embarrassment. "I've been wooed in many ways but never with quite such impetuosity as this before," I faltered.

Fan turned away, without comment.

"Of course it's only because there's a war going on, wiping out youth which normally has a right to years and years of love. Under other conditions, this adorable boy would probably call for months on some nice girl and finally ask her family for her very formally."

"All this is by the way of alibi, I take it?" Fan remarked dryly. "You can deceive yourself, my dear, but give me credit for a little personal discernment. And all I have to say about this affair is, that if you have such a thing as a conscience, it deserves to hurt excruciatingly. And mark my words, you'll pay."

Tomorrow—Tea and Chatting

THE MARRIED AVERAGE MAN

"You're much too serious" Athena fang face and twisted his hair into fizzes in her funny, tempestuous way, throwing off her wraps and touching up her face at my dresser mirror. "You don't know how to manage a husband. Always treat a stolid man as if he were a skittish colt. Call on old codger 'naughty boy.' Flatter a half-baked youth by being shocked at his sophistication. Rummie up a dignified man's hair; he loves it after the first shock. If a ma is shy, pretend he's a regular devil. As for James, your husband; why, Ann, it simply ruins a male of his type to take his soberly. Muzzle him up. Confound his stogy theories. Laugh at him. Poke his ribs. Bite his ear. Don't you see, he's impressed with his own importance? Never let a husband be too much impressed with his importance. Never let him feel too sure of you?"

I was so sure Athena was wrong that I hinted gently that Jim wasn't exactly crazy about her, and that if she tried her tricks on him he'd dislike her more than ever.

"I know he doesn't like me," she answered. "And I've never cared ainker's dam. But I want you to come to my masked ball and so I'm willing to make an effort to bamboozle your exasperating husband. He's refused you. Now watch him fall for me!"

It must be Athena's assurance that makes her so successful with men. It certainly isn't her beauty, and she is forty if she's a day.

When Jim came in he found her setting cocktails at each plate.

"We're having a party, James," she said, disregarding his frown, "and you're not properly decorated for it. Come here!"

She snatched a big red rose out of her corsage, jabbed it deftly into Jim's buttonhole, patted his reddened cheek.

DELIGHTFUL PARTY.

Members of the Immaculate Conception Sodality of St. Rose parish enjoyed their first social meeting of the winter, at St. Rose auditorium, last night. Cards furnished diversion during the evening, and in addition a motion picture was also shown. In a contest, Miss Agnes Veasey won the prize. Later a delicious two course lunch was served.

DOMESTIC SCIENCE.

Thanksgiving thoughts with which members of the Domestic Science club responded to roll call, at their meeting Tuesday with Mrs. W. F. Hoover, of west Market street, added a pretty touch, and a sweet sentiment. Guests were invited for luncheon, and the afternoon was spent, while making a comforter for the new girls club, on south west street. A great deal of China was donated to the T. W. center at this time.

The Thanksgiving note was further carried out when Mrs. D. C. Byrd read a Thanksgiving story, particularly fitted to the season, and the busy times. Mrs. Vernon Fleisher, of Fostoria, daughter of the hostess was the only guest.

The next meeting will be held December 2nd and will be with Mrs. G. R. Malt, of south Broadway.

JITSU TAU CLUB.

Mrs. Harry Goldsberry, of south Ketchikan street, entertained charmingly the members of the Jitsu Tau club, Tuesday evening. Bridge was the diversion. Mrs. Ruth Kerr Hyer and Mrs. Carl Renz were guests.

had done some of the things you did Jim would have been perfectly disgusted and outraged."

"It's because I'm not afraid of men, you little silly. When you're forty-one you may know something yourself about managing marriage. (To be continued)

Condensed Classic Series

The Lima Times' Fascinating Fiction Feature

TODAY—"Uncle Tom's Cabin," by Harriet Beecher Stowe.
TOMORROW—"Alice in Wonderland," by Lewis Carroll.

STOWE

Harriet Beecher was born at Litchfield, Connecticut, in 1811. She came of a family which achieved large reputation. Her father was Lyman Beecher, a militant clergyman and her best known brother, Henry Ward Beecher was one of the preachers of his time. In 1836 she married another clergyman Calvin Stowe.

Her inheritance and her sympathies were all toward the cause of anti-slavery. Her life in Cincinnati, on the borderland of free and slave territory, gave her an insight into the peculiar institution such as few Northerners possessed. The wife of a poor minister, occupied with the care of a large family, with little literary training, she seemed the last person to electrify the world and achieve a lasting historical importance. Yet probably none of the great names associated with the cause of anti-slavery did more to force the issue than the minister's wife. In 1852 there issued from Brunswick, Me., where her husband had become a professor at Bowdoin College, the famous "Uncle Tom's Cabin"; within five years over half a million copies had been sold. How many million people have since read the book or seen the vast variety of plays based on it, no man can tell. Mrs. Stowe wrote, later, "Dred," "The Minister's Wooing," "The Pearl of Orr's Island," "Old Town Folks," and other books, but "Uncle Tom's Cabin" was her great work. It was written with knowledge of the subject and with a noble purpose; the sincerity of the author and a spark of native genius created an effect that few other books have ever attained; the scene is true to life; her characters have remained alive long years after the circumstances which gave them birth have passed away. "Uncle Tom's Cabin" is part of the world's history of the struggle towards freedom.

UNCLE TOM'S CABIN

By HARRIET BEECHER STOWE

(Condensation by John Kendrick Bangs)

It was in the days when African slavery flourished under the free skies of America. Evil times had befallen the house of Shelby, and pressing debt required the sacrifice of a portion of the holdings of the Kentucky planter in human chattels. Uncle Tom instead of freedom that had been promised him as the reward of a lifetime of devoted service found himself torn from wife, home and children, transferred to the hands of an unscrupulous trader, and consigned to the terror-ridden slave-markets of the lower Mississippi. So trusted had the black man been that numerous avenues of escape lay open to him. Of one of these, in the dead of winter, over the ice-bound water of the Ohio river, by the "underground" to Sandusky, and thence to freedom in Canada, the mulatto-girl, Eliza, and her son who had been sold at the same time, had availed themselves. But Tom's fidelity to his master was too strong, and fearing to involve him in further difficulties he bravely faced the miseries of the future.

"I am in the Lord's hands," said he to those who tried to persuade him to escape, "and there'll be the same God there that there is here."

"Well it's a nasty mean saame, Tom!" sobbed his master's son George, as he bade the old slave farewell. "But remember—some day I'll come down and buy you back."

The voyage down the Mississippi with the slave-gang to which Tom was attached was filled with scene and episodes of woe and tragedy, but Tom found relief from sorrow in the companionship of a fellow-passenger.

satisfaction showed to a who would look, his knuckles calloused with the blows he had inflicted upon the helpless. To him by virtue of length of purse fell Tom who now tasted the tragic dregs of the cup of slavery. The manifest contrast between his own crass brutality and the high-minded character of his chattel aroused the envious wrath of his new owner, who endeavored by every wicked expedient possible to break Tom's spirit, and his unalterable faith in divine guidance, and protection. Furtively he watched him at work, hoping to find a flaw, but in vain, but one day he found the way. He ordered Tom to flog a woman-slave who was guileless of the short coming attributed to her, and for the first time in his career Legree was denied. Tom refused. Legree's answer was a blow upon Tom's cheek. "What?" he roared in his rage. "Ye dare tell me ye won't, ye blasted black beast?"

"I'll die first," Tom replied, sharply. "Well here's a pious dog—a saint—a gentleman!" sneered Legree. "Didn't ye never read in your Bible Servants obey your Masters? And ain't I your Master? Didn't I pay twelve hundred dollars cash for ye and ain't ye mine, body and soul?"

"No, Marse Legree," replied Tom through the tears and blood that coursed down his cheeks. "My soul ain't yours! It's been bought and paid for by One that is able to keep it. Ye may kill my body, but ye can't harm my soul."

Now according to the nature of his kind Legree was superstitious, and while his hatred increased, he began to fear in the presence of his fearless possession. In Tom's presence what passed for a conscience was aroused within him. Some of the unpeackable crimes of which in his lustful gratifications, and through his murderous instincts, he had been guilty began to prey upon him. Dark things had happened in the decayed old mansion in which Legree dwelt, and in common with the ignorant blacks by whom he was surrounded Legree began to have fears, accented by the delirium of drink, of impending visitations by ghosts. Taking advantage of these fears his onetime mistress, Cassie, a woman of subtle powers, herself a slave, conspired with Emmaline, an attractive mulatto whom Legree was endeavoring to install in her place, to destroy his peace of mind, and ultimately himself by means of wraithful appearances and weird sounds in the garret of the old mansion. Pretending to escape through the swamps, eluding their pursuers, they returned to the house, and lay hid there for days, working their soul-stirring strategem upon the worried Legree at the head of a pursuing party made up of negroes and blood hounds sought the missing women in the swamps and forests by which his isolated plantation was surrounded, but in vain; and in the rage of failure believing him to have been party to escape, he turned upon Tom.

"Well, ye black beast," he roared in a paroxysm of baffled rage, "I've made up my mind to kill ye."

"Very likely, Marse Legree," replied Tom, calmly. "Unless ye tell me what ye know about these yer gals," said Legree. "I ain't got nothin' to tell, Marse said Tom."

"Don't ye dare tell me that ye don't know, ye old black Christian!" cried Legree in angry contempt, striking him furiously. "Yes—I know, Marse," said Tom, "but I can't tell anythin'. I can die."

"Hark ye, Tom," roared Legree, in a terrible voice, "this time I mean what I say. I'll conquer ye, or I'll kill ye! I'll count every drop of blood in your body till ye give up."

"Marse," said Tom, "if you was sick, or in trouble, or dyin', and it would save ye, I'd give ye my heart's blood, and if takin' every drop of blood in this poor old body of mine would save your precious soul, I'd give 'em freely as the Lord gave his for me. Do the worst ye can! My troubles will soon be over, but if ye don't repent, yours won't never end!"

For a moment Legree stood aghast, awed into silence by Tom's absolutely fearless reliance upon his faith, but only for a moment. There was one hesitating pause, and the spirit of evil with him, defied, rose with seven-fold vehemence. Foaming with rage he struck his victim to the ground and gave him over to be flogged to ribbons.

"Pay away until he gives up!" shouted Legree, as the floggers led him away.

Two days later George Shelby, Tom's boy-friend from Kentucky, now grown to manhood, appeared to fulfill his promise of redemption but he came too late. Tom lay dying of his wounds.

"I've come to take you home," said George, tears falling from his eyes as he bent over his old friend. "Bless the Lord—it's Marse George!" cried Tom, as he opened his eyes, bewildered. "They haven't forgot me! They haven't forgot me! Now I shall die content."

At this moment Legree sauntered in, and looked on carelessly. "The old Satan!" cried George, in his indignation. It's a comfort to think the Devil will pay for this some of these days."

"Hush, Marse George!" said Uncle Tom. Don't feel so. He ain't done me no real harm—only opened the gates of Heaven for me—that's all. The sudden flush of strength died away. A sense of sinking came over him, and he closed his eyes. His broad chest rose and fell heavily. The expression of his face was that of a conqueror.

"Who—who shall separate us from the love of Christ?" he whispered in a voice that contended with mortal weakness and with a smile on his lips he fell asleep. "Witness, Eternal God, said George Shelby, as he knelt beside the body of his departed friend. "O witness from this hour, I will do what one man can do to drive out this curse of slavery from my land."

To Be Used in the Wyoming Dist.

CHEYENNE, Wyo., Nov. 19.—

State officials were ready today to send state and federal troops, if necessary, to Rock Springs, where foreign born radicals yesterday are reported to have prevented American miners from working in the coal mines. Full protection to miners who wish to work was promised by Governor Carey, and reports from the mining districts were eagerly awaited because of determination of 2500 miners, expressed at a Rock Springs mass meeting to return to work today.

Operators said the American miners all desire to return to work but that the foreign element objected. Radicals armed with rifles kept the men from the mines yesterday and none of the properties was operated. Several alleged radicals were placed under arrest.

IOWA FACES 7 FAT YEARS OF PLENTY

Brain Elevators Taxed to Capacity and Banks are Bulging With Money.

DES MOINES.—Picture in your mind grain elevators taxed to capacity and banks bulging with money—that is Iowa and the "food basin" it today. Make another mental picture, this time of grain elevators partially filled and banks with money vaults nearly empty—that was Iowa of 265 days ago. The farmer represents Iowa in peace time and the latter in war.

In industrialism, it was but a short step from war to peace time in Iowa. This state boasted of few war plants and these resumed manufacture of their peace time products shortly after peace began.

In Des Moines the city's principal war industry—a saddle factory—now manufactures gloves. A munition plant, located at Marshalltown, and courted one of the state's largest war industries, has resumed manufacture of farm implements.

Living costs, in general with the remainder of the country, have risen to unheard of levels since hostilities ceased. Surveys by various state organizations have revealed that food costs have advanced 25 to 50 per cent throughout the state during the last year, while the increase in all the cost of clothing has averaged 25 to 50 per cent.

The high cost of living has united the farmer and laborers of Iowa. Today there is being organized a chain of co-operative grocery stores throughout the state, which labor and farmer organizations have supported financially. The farmer is bringing the products to these stores and the laborer is buying carload lots of groceries in an effort to defeat the high cost of living.

The industrial strike which has raged throughout the country for the last year has had little effect upon Iowa. Strikes have been an almost unknown occurrence in the state.

Iowa will probably escape unscathed from the industrial battle confronting the country, Gov. W. L. Harding said. The war has made the state stronger, industrially and commercially, he added, predicting a bright future for Iowa.

For a Weak Stomach.
If you have a weak stomach you should eat sparingly of meat and should be careful to masticate your food thoroughly as digestion begins in the mouth. Then take one of Chamberlain's Tablets immediately after supper for a few days. It will improve your digestion and insure a movement of your bowels. These tablets contain no poison but strengthen the stomach and enable it to perform its functions naturally.

AMUSEMENTS

FAUROT—ETHEL CLAYTON.

"A Sporting Chance," the new Paramount picture at the Faurot is pleasing the patrons of that theatre, although it is hardly up to the standard of other productions in which Ethel Clayton has been starred. The lightness of the story is compensated for by the excellent acting of Miss Clayton, Jack Holt and others of the cast, while the production and photography are all that could be desired. Added features of the program include the Pathe News and the Paramount Magazine. Last times tonight.

ORPHEUM.

If applause and laughter, backed by favorable comment, are any gauge of excellence, the vaudeville bill of five big-time Keith acts for the first half of this week and which concludes its engagement at the Orpheum at the two shows tonight, is one of the best programs ever presented at the Market street playhouse. From opening until closing numbers, every act on the program is a genuine hit and there is not a dull moment in the entire bill. The singing, dancing and comedy are the predominant elements of the offering, each act in entirely different from the other and dispensing a different brand of entertainment.

The Myrtle Prince Girls, headliners, have proved a veritable riot upon every appearance. But Jack and Eva Arnold are another amazing big hit on this bill. They have scored a consistent hit.

White Brothers are "top top novelty entertainers." They prove that there is "something new in arolatic." Fox and Evans are black face funsters who call their turn a sensational, all operate novelty and give it the title of "The Shades of Night."

Song that are different and dances that are novel and beautiful are presented by Janis and West.

There will be a complete change of program at the Orpheum tomorrow matinee. The new bill of five splendid acts will be headlined by Zeno Dunbar and Jordan, the only act of its kind ever to appear in Lima.

DREAMLAND—ARE YOU FIT TO MARRY?

A powerful photo drama dealing with the greatest problem of the human race will be shown at the Dreamland theatre tomorrow and Friday. This production is positively unique and shows fully and clearly the consequences of a weak stomach.

DEMAND FOR TANLAC BREAKS ALL RECORDS

FAME OF TANLAC HAS SPREAD OVER ENTIRE NATION

Celebrated Medicine is Now Being Sold From Coast to Coast

IS HOUSEHOLD WORD
Unquestionably the Most Talked of Preparation in World Today.

Never before perhaps, in all history has the demand for a proprietary medicine ever approached the wonderful record being made by Tanlac, the celebrated medicine which has been accomplishing such remarkable results in all parts of the country.

The old illustration of the pebble dropped into the pool best describes the marvelous growth of the ever-increasing demand and its name has swept over the entire nation like a great tidal wave.

From coast to coast and from the Gulf to the great lakes Tanlac is known and honored. Millions have taken it and have pronounced it the greatest medicine ever given to the people, and the only explanation of Tanlac's triumph in the medicine world is Tanlac's true worth. Back of Tanlac's triumph in the drug stores is Tanlac's triumph in the homes. It is the people's medicine and the people themselves have made Tanlac what it is.

No matter where you go Tanlac is a household word and it is unquestionably the most widely talked of medicine in the world today. One person invariably tells another about a medicine that helps them and in this way scores or even hundreds may hear of Tanlac as a direct result of one bottle in a single home.

When asked to explain this record breaking demand for Tanlac, Mr. G. F. Willis, the international distributor of Tanlac, said:

"There can be but one possible explanation and it can be told in one word—merit. That tells the whole story. No preparation, no matter how extensively advertised, could possibly meet with such phenomenal success unless it possessed absolute merit and extraordinary powers as a medicine."

"These enormous sales," says G. F. Willis, international distributor of Tanlac, "mean but one thing and that is—merit. Tanlac is well advertised, it is true, but such a large and rapidly growing demand could not be brought about by advertising alone. It's what the neighbors say that counts. One bottle is sold in a neighborhood through advertising, but ten more are sold in that community after the first bottle produces results and that's right where Tanlac scores. People are always willing to talk about their ailments, but they are more than willing to tell others of the medicine that helps them. It's something they couldn't keep to themselves if they tried, for the impulse to sympathize with neighbors and want to help them is one of the strongest of help as one of the biggest things in human nature."

"Tanic is producing these results," he continued, "and that is why nothing on earth can keep it out of the homes of the people. It is not only the most talked of medicine in the world today, but, in my opinion, it is the best and most efficient. And, although prominent officials and leaders throughout the country have endorsed Tanlac, its greatest prestige is firmly based on the unqualified endorsement of the masses of the people."

"Not a day nor a week passes that does not bring hundreds of statements from the people concerning the good this medicine is doing and reciting the circumstances of remarkable cases that would convince the most skeptical. These are alone and sufficient for Tanlac but the figures contained in these enormous orders speak eloquently and convincingly of the great good this medicine is doing."

SELL EIGHT CARLOADS IN 6 MONTHS' TIME

Forth Worth, Texas.
G. F. Willis, Atlanta, Ga.:
My Dear Mr. Willis:—Replying to your inquiry we are glad to make statement of our exact experience with Tanlac.

When you called on us the latter part of 1916 we could not comprehend the extent of business Tanlac was having as reported to us from other States. We had, however, heard something of Tanlac in the Southern States near us, and believing in the statements made by you, we agreed to co-operate and act as your agent for our immediate territory, which covers one quarter of the State of Texas, though a very sparsely settled portion. When you spoke of our buying Tanlac in carload lots I confess we were a little bit skeptical.

Tanic has been the greatest patent medicine seller we have ever handled. In six months' time we bought and distributed eight carloads.

MAXWELL-CLARK DRUG CO.

Approximately Twelve Million Bottles Sold and Distributed in Four Years

Success Unprecedented

One Million Bottles Sold First Ten Weeks of This Year.

More like a tale from the Arabian Nights of old than a record of a modern business renews the story of the marvelous growth and development of Tanlac, which has been the sensation of the drug trade throughout America.

The first bottle of Tanlac to reach the public was sold just a little over four years ago in the thriving little city of Lexington, Ky., where 20,000 bottles of medicine were sold in only a few months' time. Since that time there have been sold throughout the United States and Canada approximately 12,000,000 bottles and a romance which has no parallel in the modern business world was begun.

The instant and phenomenal success which Tanlac won in Lexington has been duplicated in practically every large city, small town, village and hamlet in North America, the Province of Ontario, Quebec, Alberta, Saskatchewan and British Columbia have shown due appreciation of Tanlac. Hawaii, Alaska, Cuba, Porto Rico and other American possessions have clamored for Tanlac.

Over 17,000 Bottles a Day.
Sales this year bid fair to smash all previous records, as the sale for the first ten weeks amounted to over one million bottles. It seems almost incredible, but these are actual figures and such is the record established by this wonderful medicine.

As a matter of fact, the greatest drug firms of the country have voluntarily come forward and stated in plain, cold figures the record breaking sales everywhere, and the following letters from well known wholesale and retail drug firms give ample evidence of the widespread popularity of Tanlac.

Biggest Thing of Kind Ever Seen in Nashville, Tenn.

In referring to the phenomenal and unprecedented sale of Tanlac in Nashville and throughout the Middle Tennessee section, Mr. Benson Hynes, the managing partner of the De Motville Drug Co., the well known wholesale and retail druggists, and unquestionably the largest drug concern in that section of the State, said:

"I have been closely identified with the drug trade in this city for a number of years and in all my experience I have never seen anything in way of a proprietary medicine that even approaches Tanlac as a seller."

"Within only a few weeks' time we sold our original order of two thousand five hundred dollars ($2,500) worth of this medicine and had to order more. Our second order for the same amount. Our total sales to date aggregate 47,250 bottles and I believe I will be entirely safe in saying that these purchases establish a new sales record for Nashville."

"I had heard a great deal of the success Tanlac had achieved in other cities, but I had not idea that the preparation would become so popular in Nashville. In fact, the demand for it has so far exceeded our expectations as to prove a complete revelation."

"Judging from the many repeated sales and expressions of satisfaction from those who have actually tested it and who say they have been benefited from the preparation, Tanlac must, therefore, be something of unusual merit. When it is considered that the demand is confined to only one preparation, the sale is to be considered unprecedented. In fact, it is the biggest thing of its kind ever seen at our store."

BIRMINGHAM JOBBER SMASHES RECORDS

Birmingham, Ala.
G. F. Willis, Atlanta, Ga.:
Dear Sir:—Replying to your letter beg to advise that our sales on Tanlac have been satisfactory in every way and our relations from a business standpoint have been absolutely perfect.

Since taking the distributing agency we have sold 177,672 bottles, and have yet to receive our first complaint from a dissatisfied customer. Tanlac continues to hold front rank in Alabama, and from present indications, it will continue to do so for years to come.

DOSTER NORTHINGTON DRUG CO.
J. T. Doster, President.

I am a druggist who has been in business thirty-four years, and I have never had anything to sell like Tanlac.—Waite Harvey, Kosciusko, Miss.

TANLAC TO BE SOLD OVER ENTIRE STATE

In only a few weeks' time Tanlac will be placed on sale in practically every large city, town, village and hamlet in the State of Ohio.

A number of agencies already have been established in a very limited time, but it is desired by the manufacturers that the distribution be made more complete and far-reaching.

Druggists and dealers who are interested should write or telegraph G. F. Willis, Fourth National Bank Bldg., Atlanta, Ga.

10 CARLOADS ARE ORDERED FOR BIG WESTERN FIRMS

Largest Order Ever Given By Them for a Proprietary Medicine

DEMAND IS ENORMOUS
"Nothing Unusual in Phenomenal Sales," Says International Distributor

Ten carloads of Tanlac are moving from the laboratories at Dayton, O., toward the Pacific coast in response to orders given by the leading drug firms of Salt Lake City, Ogden, Spokane, Seattle, Calgary, Vancouver, San Francisco and Los Angeles.

These tremendous orders, the largest ever placed in the West and on the Pacific coast for a proprietary medicine, are to supply the phenomenal demand for Tanlac in the West. Canadian Northwest and orders can only be realized when it is understood that each car of Tanlac contains upwards of 1,060 dozen or 12,720 bottles, the entire ten carloads representing a minimum of 127,200 bottles of this celebrated medicine.

In speaking of the above orders and of the phenomenal growth and development of the Tanlac industry, G. F. Willis, the international distributor, said:

"Having heard through absolutely reliable sources of the remarkable and rapidly growing demand for Tanlac throughout the United States and Canada the leading drug firms of the West and Pacific coast did not hesitate for a moment to accept the agencies and to assure us of their hearty co-operation in making Tanlac just as successful in the Far West as it is in the South, East and Middle West."

"It is nothing unusual for dealers to order a carload of Tanlac and have orders for every bottle of it before the car arrives. In fact many of the Tanlac jobbers and distributors invariably order the second and third cars before the car enroute has time to reach them."

187,332 BOTTLES SOLD IN DENVER

Denver, Colo.
G. F. Willis, Atlanta, Ga.:
Dear Sir:—Our sales record so far exceeds the sale of any other proprietary remedy that we have ever had to do with, that Tanlac is in a class by itself. We have received trade 187,332 bottles, or nearly 23 cars, being one car, a month since the account was opened, and sales seem to be on the increase.

"I must confess that your story of success with Tanlac in other fields have sounded something like a fairy tale but for the fact that we had some advance information about what you had done in other territories and we otherwise would have been exceedingly skeptical."

You have made good all that you promised to do in this territory, and been someone. At all times you have been reasonable and fair in your dealings and you can certainly be depended upon to carry out any verbal or written contract that may be made with you. Very sincerely,
W. A. HOVER & CO.
Per W. A. Hover.

MEMPHIS FIRM SELLS FIVE CARS IN MONTH

Memphis, Tenn.
G. F. Willis, Atlanta, Ga.:
Dear Sir:—It would be a very hard matter for us to write a letter expressing just our feeling and experience in regard to Tanlac. We know that the day of miracles is past and we all know that there are no unexplainable mysteries in the drug business, and yet this Tanlac proposition smacks of both. For one firm to be able to sell at the rate of one carload every two weeks and for this record to keep up until now we have sold 410,442 bottles, is just the least you can say, phenomenal and bewildering. We sold five carloads in one month alone.

Tanic is giving entire satisfaction to our trade, and is a constant and regular reporter from the same sources and our customers write us that their demands are persistent in the way of repeat orders as well as from new users.

The uniform courtesy and consideration—the splendid business policy displayed by Mr. Willis with us, as his wholesale distributors and through our agents has been everything that we could ask, and we hope that you will realize on your wishes to in every way stabilize and permanently perfect the popularity and continued sale of Tanlac. Yours very truly,
THE HESSIG ELLIS DRUG CO.
(Signed) R. R. Ellis, President.

UNABLE TO AGREE ON UPON COMMERCIAL CURRENT CONTRACT

Meeting Last Night Between Committee and Officials
Resulted in Deadlock.

MET THIS AFTERNOON

Street Lighting And Street
Car Contracts Are Satisfactory.

All efforts on the part of the joint committee composed of various members of local organizations, to effect a satisfactory street lighting, street car and commercial rate contract between the city and Ohio Electric Railway company have proven futile, but the body is striving toward that end, and there is now a meeting in session between officials of the company and the committee in an effort to prepare a contract which may be presented to city council at the adjourned meeting this evening.

There was a meeting between the officials of the company and the committee last night resulted in a deadlock on the contract, and it was to come to some satisfactory agreement that the meeting for this afternoon was called. Not only is part of the committee unable to agree with the company, but another part has taken sides with the concern against the other members of the committee, it is understood. As a result of this deadlock it is very probable another tentative contract will have to be drawn. However, it is understood, the electric company is fighting this, and officials declare this is the last contract they will draw as it contains a price which can not, under any circumstances be reduced.

Parts Are Satisfactory
Parts of the tentative contract have been received by the committee as satisfactory. The bone of contention now is the commercial rate, or rather the rate for current which is used in the home here. It is the committee's contention that the present rates for this current should be incorporated in the new contract, but the company stoutly declares the five per cent discount now allowed consumers must be abolished.

It is understood, the railroad company has cut its demand for street lighting, at first, demanded $12.50 per light, but compromised for $6.00 this is about $3 increase over the present rate for street lighting.

Want Taylor Plan
The committee has agreed, it is understood, to the "Taylor plan" for street cars, and also the one man car. The Taylor plan is on the service cost basis. That is the riding public will pay just what the service is worth. This worth will be judged by a commissioner who will have to make the books of the company and decide whether or not the concern is making a fair profit at the fare charged. The fare will remain ten cents for probably the first six months, then an investigation will be made. If this investigation discloses the fact that the company is making no profit at five cents, the fare will be increased a cent or two which will be maintained for another six months, when the commissioner will investigate again. The fare will then either remain at that price, brought back to five cents or increased as the commissioner deems justifiable.

Committee's Statement

Just before going into meeting this afternoon, Walter H. Clarke, secretary of the committee made the following statement to the press:

"The Ohio Electric proposed to temporarily suspend negotiations with the city council and placed its proposed franchise in the hands of this committee. Several points of difference have been found to exist. They have been satisfactorily adjusted and the committee believes all matter in the controversy could have been adjusted to the satisfaction of all parties concerned with the exception of the rate for one type of light proposed for boulevard lighting and the matter of discounts for domestic lighting.

"With reference to the latter, the committee demanded that the present rate be charged and that the discount of five per cent remain in force. To this the Ohio Electric did not agree.

"The committee has been actuated by a desire to see to it that the city have adequate service at the right price, and firmly believes that the demands made are just to both parties.

"The action of the Ohio Electric in refusing to comply with these reasonable demands of the committee precludes further negotiations at this time."

LIMA MERCHANTS TO WAGE WAR AGAINST THEFTS IN STORES

Plans To Combat Shoplifting
Were Made Meeting
Tuesday Night.

OTHER MATTERS UP

Organization To Regulate Business Hours—Also To Have Shopping Week.

The immediate organization of a merchants' protective association in Lima, for the protection of the merchants against shoplifting and other methods of organized robbery costing the merchants thousands of dollars annually, was the principal issue culminating at the regular semi-monthly meeting of the Retail Merchants' Association, at the Lima Club, Tuesday evening. Such an organization has been under consideration for some time, and investigation made by Secretary James Morton and a committee appointed for that purpose, of the protective associations of Columbus, Dayton, Toledo and other cities, uncovered facts which show the absolute necessity of such an organization here.

The extreme activity against crooks in these cities has caused them to seek less dangerous fields and as a result Lima has been receiving more than her share, officials said. Secretary Linn Reynolds of the Columbus Merchants' Association addressed the merchants here recently on the activities in that line in Columbus, which have been perfected to such an extent that crooks from coast to coast have been warned through their fellow operators to "steer clear of Columbus."

The principal advantage of the system as it is to be carried out here, is that all prosecutions will be handled by the secret board, eliminating the necessity of the merchant personally filing affidavits against offenders, or appearing against them. The smoothest crooks may come into the city and work their way into the confidence of a merchant, as a trusted employee to such an extent that when he is finally caught he is released from prosecution. The new organization will eliminate any such personal angle and all offenders will be prosecuted to the full extent of the law without the knowledge of either the merchant or the crook as to who is doing the prosecution.

Secretary Morton has been informed by one of the largest detective agencies in the country that the field surrounding Lima is one of the richest for their work, to be found anywhere and it is altogether probable that an office will be opened in Lima within the near future, for co-operation with the merchants' association and the local police.

The merchants also voted to adopt uniform opening and closing hours throughout the city, and a board was selected to fix the hours. In the discussion of this matter, B. H. Blum, made the suggestion that during the summer months all stores be closed at noon Saturday and opened at noon Monday. This suggestion created much merriment, but was not taken seriously by the board appointed to fix the hours.

A uniform poster urging early Christmas shopping was adopted at the meeting and these will make their appearance in the windows in the near future. It was also urged that all the merchants co-operate in advertising and otherwise urging the public to take advantage of the first week in December, which has been designated as early shopping week.

It was suggested by members of the association that a regular meeting place be designated. This was not acted upon, but it is probable a regular meeting place will be selected at the next meeting.

Delegates Attend

Arthur Thomas, Frank Pheasant, R. A. Gramm, O. J. Smith, L. E. Ludwig, S. C. Biddle, E. G. Schneller, and E. A. Leeson are among the Lima delegates to the national Y. M. C. A. convention which opened today at Detroit. About 5000 Y. M. C. A. workers from practically all parts of the world will be in attendance at the convention, which will close next Sunday.

According to information received here today from Bluffton, Pa. C. Bank officials estimate the shortage will reach $125,000, it is understood.

RAILROAD COMPANY
PASSES THE BUCK

Failure of the city and county engineers to co-operate with them in the preparation of plans, and the act of the United States government in taking over the road in December 1917 are given by the Lake Erie and Western Railway as the reason the Metcalf street viaduct has not been constructed before that time, in answers filed to the petitions of the city of Lima and the Allen county board of commissioners Wednesday.

It is admitted, when permission was granted to build the eight additional tracks at Metcalf street, a provision of the contract was that a viaduct was to be commenced when ordered by the city council and was to be completed within two years of the commencement of such work.

Plans were submitted on March 22, 1917, July 3, 1919 and July 11, 1919. It is alleged, and no action as to approval or disapproval was taken by the city or county engineer.

It is further alleged, when the government took over the railroads in December, 1917, the railroad had no choice in the matter of saying whether or not the contract should be carried out and that repeated attempts have been made to get the sanction of the government officials to carry out the work, all to no avail.

Three Men Are Given Good Jobs

Chief Roush's determination to rid the city of loafers bore fruit on the first night of the enforcement of his decree to arrest all vagrants found by police. Patrolmen brought in three men about 1 o'clock Wednesday morning from the B. & O. station all without money or jobs. Money was furnished the men but Judge Botkin gave them each a steady position in the Toledo workhouse for the next thirty days.

The men gave their names as Fred P. Elworth, 25, St. Paul; John Gilio, 26, Cleveland, and Bernard McSorely, 22, Baltimore.

Medics Meet at State Hospital

Forty-five members of the Allen County Medical Association attended the regular meeting held at the Lima state hospital Tuesday night. A feature of the meeting was a clinic by Doctor Charles Clark, superintendent and assistants, in which 20 cases of insanity were shown. Dr. Clark also spoke on "New Classification of Insanity."

Election of officers was postponed until the next meeting which will be held December 9.

She was born in Lima in 1862. One son, Harry L. Buchanan of Detroit, with her husband survive her. Five sisters are also left. They are Mrs. J. R. Kerr, Mrs. Leroy Hume, and Mrs. Esther Bates of Lima, Mrs. Laura Hoffman, Oklahoma, and Rev. "HELP THE GIRL" IS SLOGAN IN DRIVE

Y. W. C. A. Wants Citizens

RAILROAD COMPANY
PASSES THE BUCK

"Lima has reason to be proud of her record for generosity within the past two years, following the opening of hostilities with Germany. She helped to build a splendid hospital for the city, in the five Liberty loan campaigns, in the war savings and thrift campaigns, the Y. M. C. A. campaign and did everything in her power for the soldier boys and young men. During that time, very little if anything was done for our young girls, and now it is time to see that they have equal privileges with our boys and young men."

In his talk Rev. O'Ferrall pointed out that we had helped to build a handsome Y. M. C. A. and in addition there were various clubs, lodges, and social centers where the young men could congregate. There are very few places for the young women to meet for recreational purposes with the exception of the Y. W. C. A. It is to enlarge the scope of this work that the $20,000 campaign is being waged.

The center provides for every Lima girl a good room and meal, a Sunday with friends, and clubs for the younger and older girls.

George Bayly who has been an enthusiastic worker in all campaigns in Lima for the past several years, also spoke, and pledged the support of the men in this undertaking.
